Lifting Up . . . February 2012

Once again, the southeast has suffered Tornado Damage, especially the state of Alabama. Unseasonably warm January temperatures triggered several bouts of severe thunderstorms and tornadoes. Please keep those afflicted with this destruction in prayer and lift up those who are traveling to assist our neighbors in need. (photo courtesy of Associated Press)

Disaster Relief: How Can You Help?

Registration is Open for Volunteers in 2012 Long-Term Disaster Recovery, Birmingham, AL.

The teams are forming to work on the tornado damage suffered at the end of April last year. Now there is more damage stretching across the southern states. Long-Term recovery has just begun. Read on to see how you may be of assistance to those in need.

Driskell uses broad brush to inspire Black History Month worship gathering

The "good news" can be delivered via myriad methods, and if you ask David C. Driskell, it may well involve a paintbrush, a keyboard or a strong set of pipes. Appearing on the eve of the Lenten season as part of the UCC's celebration of Black History Month, the 80-year-old Driskell is one of the world's leading authorities on African-American art.
